

AGRI 1202: Farm Skills II

The farm skills course has been developed to expose learners to the practical principles and concepts involved in crops, livestock and aquaponics production systems, data collection, record keeping and agricultural value chains. It also aims to provide an introduction to modern technology driven agriculture and links theory to production.

Credits: 2

Class Hours: 4

Prerequisites:

AGRI 1103

Department: Agriculture