

EDUC 1002: Physical Development

This course is design to provide students with a weekly opportunity to engage in organized physical activities such as sports and various exercise regimens including aerobics, physical conditioning, and body strengthening.

Credits: 1

Class Hours: 2

Prerequisites:

1st Year Standing

Department: General Education