

Required Documentation

All documents submitted to the Bahamas Agriculture and Maritime Institute must be verifiable copies of the originals. Applicants awaiting exam results can be provisionally admitted to a BAMSI degree programme based on a review of unofficial transcripts and/or fulfilment of programme specific admission requirements. However, full admission is contingent on receipt of final, official documents and fulfilment of programme-specific admission.