

Cancellation of Programme or Course

The delivery of any programme is dependent on sufficient number of students registering for the said programme. The Institute reserves the right to cancel or defer any programme, course or specialization which is undersubscribed or nonviable or for which adequate resources are unavailable. If a course is cancelled the student will be dropped from the course by the Registrar's office. Students are encouraged to meet with their advisor to select another suitable course.