

Elective Courses

Electives refer to optional courses freely chosen by students. Students may select an elective from another program area as long as they meet the required pre requisite requirements.