

AREV 1007: 2D Methods and Concepts

In this course, students are engaged in intensive investigation of essential principles as form, line, space, colour, balance, and unity in two-dimensional design. Projects are assigned in sequence leading to specific visual solutions. Various media are used.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

1st Year Standing

Department: Art and Environmental Science