

AREV 2012: Survey of Bahamian and Caribbean Art

Survey of Bahamian and Caribbean Art is an Art History course that serves as an introduction to Caribbean art with a focus on Bahamian art. Students will explore art from the English-, Dutch-, French- and Spanish-speaking Caribbean from the 20th Century to present. Students will participate in discussion, critical reading and reflection as they learn to articulate their ideas, positions and voices.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

1st Year Standing

Department: Art and Environmental Science