

Internship

All students pursuing an Associate of Science (A.S.) program of study will complete an internship or work-based learning course during the Summer Session. To be eligible for the internship, students must have completed 15 credits, six of which must be in their majors and maintain a 2.0 or higher GPA. All students regardless of degree program are encouraged to seek an internship experience that will enhance their learning and marketability with future employers.