

Student Intellectual Property

Student intellectual property is treated in the same manner as intellectual property of faculty and staff. Ownership of student projects that are the result of individual initiative with incidental use of college facilities and resources resides with the student. If the student is working on a project initiated and funded by the Institute, ownership resides with the Institute.