

Social Media Responsibilities

The following activity is prohibited on the Bahamas Agriculture and Marine Science Institute social media pages or any of the social media pages of the registered clubs and organization within the Institute:

- Posting content that violates Bahamian law
- Commercial or political activity
- Online gambling
- Endorsement of any product, service, or private organization
- Posting personal information or material protected by copyright
- Posting viruses or Trojan-infected content
- Uploading pornographic content or images that depict harassment, vandalism, or alcohol or drug paraphernalia
- Using inappropriate or profane language
- Demeaning other users
- Sharing information that could potentially harm an individual, organization, or institution

Remember, when using BAMSI social media:

- Be respectful of all viewpoints
- Adhere to all of the Institute's technology and computing policies
Review the terms of service for each social media platform

The Bahamas Agriculture and Marine Science logo and visual identity are trademarked and cannot be used without permission from the Office of Communications and or Executive Director. All student publications shall explicitly state that the opinions expressed are not necessarily those of the Institute or its student body. The Institute may choose to use content generated by members of the BAMSI's online community on the main website, on official social media sites, and for marketing purposes.

Misuse of Electronic Devices in the Classroom

The use of electronic devices by students in the classroom is up to the discretion of the lecturer. Any use of such devices for purposes other than student learning is strictly prohibited.

If a lecturer perceives such use as disruptive and/or inappropriate, the lecturer has the right to terminate such use. If the behavior continues, the student may be subject to disciplinary action to include removal from the classroom or referral to the Office of Student Affairs.