

Smoking

Smoking is prohibited in all indoor spaces throughout the Institute, including meeting rooms, lounges, offices, and residence halls. A $100 fine in addition to other potential penalties, including exclusion from campus housing, will be charged for violating this policy. Altering smoke detectors creates danger for all building occupants and will be met with disciplinary action.