

Unauthorized Use of College Facilities or Services

Students may not possess BAMSI records, official communications, stationery, or other official documents or blank official materials. Personal academic materials such as tests and personal electronic messages belonging to someone else are included in unauthorized possession.