

Certificate in Agriculture

This hybrid course consists of five (5) weeks theory on line and one (1) week practical on the BAMSI farm. It is designed to provide students with a theoretical and practical educational background in the areas of agricultural science, crop and livestock production, aquaculture and farm administration.

Department: Agriculture

Type: Certificate