

Academic Advisors

Each new student is assigned to a faculty member as an academic advisor. This initial contact is made during the Advisement and Registration period. The advisor guides the student in meeting academic requirements and choosing classes. When the advisor is not available, the student may contact the Registrar's office for assistance. Changes in advisors will only be made due to faculty shifts in duties or reassignment or where a student changes his or her major.