

Academic Holds

A hold may be placed on a student's account for academic as well as non-academic reasons. The reason for the hold will be noted in POPULI. It is the student's responsibility to ensure that they meet all requirements to have the hold removed and meet with the department placing the hold on their accounts.

Reasons for a HOLD on an account include, but are not limited to outstanding financial fees or honor code violations.