

Work-Study Positions

BAMSI work-study positions may be available for students determined to be eligible. Students must complete all of the necessary documentation and provide the information needed to support the same. Failure to provide the necessary and correct/factual information will result in ineligibility. Request for the work-study should be made through Student Affairs.

